SWORN AFFIDAVIT OF Moji Word

I, Moji Word of Word For Word TV Ministries International, INC. based in Houston Texas make this, my sworn affidavit, believing the contents to be true:

I am an US Citizen and a Christian. I am a qualified Data Analyst, Commercial Pilot, Math and Computer Adjunct, and Computational Scientist, a Television and Software Programmer, Political and Children's rights activist. I host television shows which are aired on satellite channels.

I knew the named Bishop Gloria from Christian networking. I was shocked to receive a call relating the very distressing story of what has happened to their beautiful children and the defamatory allegations that have been made against Bishop Gloria and her husband.

I agreed to fly to Great Britain and do whatever I could to support them. I am experienced in campaigning, promoting causes and raising awareness. I am from a politically influential family in Nigeria and married into a prominent family in the United State of America. I continue to move in political circles in Nigeria and therefore share a common upbringing and interests raising children, share meeting high officials including former Presidents of Nigeria with Mr Musa and Bishop Gloria.

Mr Musa and Bishop Gloria invited me to their humble home in Haringey London where they have offered me openness, friendship, honesty, generosity, courtesy and hospitality. The more I get to know Mr Musa and Bishop Gloria personally the more disturbing I find the allegations that were made against a woman of God. It is unbelievable that anyone could ever accuse such a highly regarded Christian family of such despicable crimes, let alone rely on these unsubstantiated allegations to remove their gifted, well behaved and adorable children.

Hence, I am ready to support them organizing other human and civil right organizations in the USA to sought top American Attorneys who practice in the UK and experts to analyse the Musas' documentations and evidences against Haringey Council's documentations.

I have witnessed how warmly Bishop Gloria cares for Queen Elizabeth who is always calm and content in her company. I have witnessed the many visitors of their home who are typically respectable, Christian people of high standing. I have never heard Bishop Gloria raise her voice or show any anger or malice towards another living being.

On contact days I have watched Bishop Gloria spend hours preparing fresh African food from raw ingredients to take to her children. She packs a bag full of the food, presents and toys which she knows her children will enjoy. I have travelled with her on the two hour exhausting journey to the contact centre where she has spent a single hour being watched and criticised by contact supervisors, in a tiny room before making the same exhausting journey home. I admire her courage and longsuffering. She is able to tolerate the injustice, torture, disrespectful, and inhumane treatment without ever uttering a single negative word against her tormentors. She instead praises God for the challenges she has been given in this life.

I have seen Mr Musa attend patiently to the needs of his wife and child, keeping his Political Broadcasting channel updated, while dealing with the paperwork from these court proceedings. I have watched Mr Musa with Queen Elizabeth, all day alone on the occasions when Bishop Gloria attends contact without her. Mr Musa appears to be someone who has a lot of experience caring for children, from how he confidently holds, feeds, washes, dresses and protects Queen Elizabeth.

I have witnessed the relationship between Mr Musa and Bishop Gloria as being harmonious closeness of mutual respect. I have never witnessed a single moment of animosity between the two of them. I have spent a lot of time in the presence of the two of them over the past 3 weeks and I am convinced that this couple's marriage is solid and everlasting.

Everywhere I have been with Bishop Gloria and Mr Musa, I have seen them greeted with great respect and endearment. I have been with them in the Nigerian Embassy, Christian fellowships, Radio broadcasting stations, Television studios, a Child Abuse Rally and around the local area. It is clear to me that I am not alone in my admiration of their strength and faith.

I feel passionate about doing what I can to reunite this family that has been so ruthlessly torn apart. I am known for my campaigning and activism in the area of child trafficking and empathise with the children who are the real victims. I felt compelled to write to the British Government and others about what the law seems to allow a totally innocent family to go through. All contacts I have made have been of my own concern and interest for the family and I have not been instructed to contact anyone on anyone else's behalf. I was not told by either Bishop Gloria or Mr Musa that they were subject to any Order of the court restricting my activities. I am sure that they would have told me about the injunction if they had one and they were aware of one or known about such injunction. It is only since Friday 15 April 2011 that there has been any question over a possible Injunction.
